Board Member position description

The RDA Board member is an active contributor to the outcomes of a diverse group of individuals working in a complex environment to deliver high-value outcomes for the state or community and region. Members are an active driver of economic growth, innovation and entrepreneurship in their region.

They are expected to leverage existing networks and develop new networks across industry sectors and diverse communities (especially with First Nations people). RDA Board Members are required to support the Chair in facilitating investment in people, places, services, industries and local economies. They must be knowledgeable about the economic, social, cultural and environmental opportunities and challenges facing their state/region; be well connected and a strong advocate for their region(s); and, for regional RDA members, draw their regional communities together to build and drive economic growth.
